NEW ADVERTISEM

ASSAULT THE ENEMY AT ONCE.—The battle for life. It is a maxim in war to assault the enemy before he has concentrated his strength for a task. It should be the same in a conflict with disease. Even Bristol's Sarsaparilla, an antagonist with which few mortal maladies can cope, does its work of cure and regeneration more swiftly when resorted to in the early stages of a disorder, than when the latter has become entrenched in the system. Scrofula that has not pierced deep into the flesh or touched the bone, vanishes as if by enchantment under its influence. So it is with skin diseases, liver complaint, affections of the bowels and the kidneys, dyspepsia, neuralgia, and rheumatism. But let it be also understood, that when the struggle between the physical powers and the malady has become a shapeless seemingly doubtful Battle for Life, Bristol's Sarsaparilla can still turn the scale in favor of the patient. The merest wreck of humanity is not past salvage with its hygeian aid. In every case of scrofulous disease the use of Bristol's Pills, at the same time with the Sarsaparilla, is absolutely necessary. cj—j16

Valparaiso Jan. 14th 1874

Great conspiracy discovered in La Paz, Bolivia. At Iquique, Peru, destructive fire, 6 persons perished.

NEWS FROM PARA.

4,000 MILES IN SIX DAYS.

The first fruits of the submarine cable inaugurated by Dom Pedro on New Year's day are made apparent to Buenos Ayres by the above telegram to this paper, announcing that the New York mail-steamer Ontario arrived at Pará last Thursday. In less than a week we have news over 4,000 miles of the South American seaboard, from the Amazons to La Plata, and as soon as the link from Chuy to Rio Janeyro be completed we shall have instantaneous communication along the whole line.

The magnitude of the present event will be better understood when we call to mind that the cable now working from Pará to Rio Janeyro is several hundred miles longer than the great Atlantic one from Ireland to North America, and double the distance from Montevideo to Valparaiso; which was heretofore the longest stretch of telegraphy in this continent.

Pará, sometimes called Belem, is near the mouth of the Amazons, under the Equator, and the northernmost town of any importance in Brazil, the province of Pará extending north of the Amazon to the frontier of Cayenne or French Guiana. It is a seaport of some note, chiefly for its exports of india-rubber, and carries on a brisk trade with North America since the establishment of the New York and Brazilian mail-steamers. Many of the principal merchants are Americans, who speak favorably of the climate, notwithstanding the great heat. The town is built on the River Guama, which debouches into the estuary of Pará 70, miles from the Atlantic, the approach for sea vessels being easy and the anchorage safe and roomy, commanded by a small fort. The houses are not high, but substantially built, the streets well laid out and paved. Besides a handsome Cathedral there are steam-tramways, President's palace, college, schools, botanic garden, theatre and Cabildo. The population does not exceed 30,000, of whom 4000 are slaves. The export of India-rubber averages from 5 million lbs. yearly upwards, besides cocoa, rice and Brazilian nuts to the value of £400,000 sterling in the aggregate. The population of the Province of Pará is under 250,000 souls, while the area is ten times that of England; it is watered by the Amazon, Tocantins, Tapaios, Madeira, Guama and other rivers, and diversified by magnificent forests yet untrodden by the white man.

From Pará to Cape San Roque is a thousand miles, and then 200 lower we reach Pernambuco. The ocean cable will probably start from San Roque to the Cape Verds, and this will be only a few hundred miles less than the cable now completed from Pará to Rio Janeyro.

The advantages to the merchants of Brazil, from possessing instantaneous communication between all the chief northern ports and Rio Janeyro are so great that they cannot fail to wonder how they allowed so many years to elapse before carrying out such an enterprise. In a couple of months we shall, here in the River Plate, be partakers of these same advantages, as it seems the two sections between Chury and Rio Janeyro were by last advices from England ready for shipment. Thus the line will be completed along the S. American coast, from the Equator to Montevideo, before the damaged section of Madeira will have been picked up and spliced.

Under such circumstances a steamer from Europe entering Pernambuco or Bahia will be at once telegraphed to Buenos Ayres, and our dates from Lisbon will be only ten days interval; in other words our morning readers say of March 25th will have news from Paris and London to March 15th; and as Pará is only 1800 miles from the West Indies, which communicates by cable with North America, the New York mail-steamer may make that distance in 7 days, and thus send us from Pará telegrams with advices from New York only 7 days old.

Even before the conclusion of the Chuy section to Rio Janeyro the mail advices will now reach us in 4 days less than heretofore, the distance from Pernambuco to Rio being suppressed. It is, moreover, a gain to know with so much anticipation the arrival of steamers from Europe or North America. But every step we make, every advantage of this kind that we gain, only makes us the more eager to see the completion of the Mana cable in its entirety and the River Plate connected with the centre of the business world, London, from which radiate, like so many luminous spokes of the wheel of Progress, the telegraph wires to New York, Calcutta, Melbourne, St. Petersburg, and Pekin.

RURAL INTERESTS.

When the late Don Valentin Alsina compiled the Rural Code for the Province of B. Ayres he conferred a lasting benefit on his countrymen, and our only regret was that the Code lay a dead-letter for several years. Among the many abuses which it remedied none was more flagrant than the impunity of trespass. Landed property was previously held by so loose a tenure that if a neighbor's cattle came on your ground twenty times a day you had to drive them off as often: if you shot a troublesome cow or mare for breaking into your garden the owner of the animal could make you pay its value. Thus an estanciero was in the eyes of the Law similar to an Indian chief or Arab sheik, who had his lands, flocks and herds, but who could neither invoke the law of trespass against his neighbor, nor be arraigned himself on such a charge.

Dr. Alsina changed all this, giving to landed proprietors the same rights as in Europe, and allowing a poundage fee of $2 m/c per head on every animal caught trespassing on a neighbor's ground. The only exception he made was in case of drought, when the owners of animals could not prevent them from straying off their own land in quest of the nearest bañados or rivers.

We are informed from Luxan that the drought which has prevailed there and in the neighboring departments of Conchas and Pilar is so great that the exception provided by Dr. Alsina has actually occurred. The dried-up camps are strewn with thousands of dead sheep and cattle, the people are mostly left afoot, and the few animals that still remain to them have strayed away to the green bañados or low-lands known as Talar de Pacheco. The proprietor of this favored site has a number of men catching and impounding the stray cattle, and demanding the penalty fixed by law.

Under these circumstances the parties who consider themselves aggrieved, certain respectable native estancieros, apply to us to raise an outcry on their behalf. It is difficult to say what are the real merits of the case, without hearing what the gentlemen on the other side have to allege. But, surely it is the duty of the Provincial Government to ascertain whether the facts are as stated—

Is it true Mr. Irigoyen has 10,000 sheep dead!

Is it true the camps are strewn with dead cattle!

Is it lawful to charge for trespass in such case!

The matter appears to be of public interest, and hence we give a prominent place to the subjoined letter.

Lujan, January 11th.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

In my letter of the 8th I begged you to urge the authorities to take some steps towards protecting our interests for two or three months, by saving for us the few scattered animals that have survived the drought, which are at present about in all directions. Some of them have fallen into the hands of people in the partido of Conchas who have neither tillage nor cattle farms, and are at present impounding our animals right and left to sell them by auction unless we pay for trespass.

This seems incredible in view of the drought we are suffering, besides the alarm of Cholera and the fact that most of the neighbors are away from home driving their sheep to outward camps to save them. It is cruelty, under these circumstances, to seize the few remaining cattle of ours, when we have neither horses nor men to look after them, and when Art. 15 of the Code expressly protects us by saying that "in time of drought or other "force-majeure it will be illegal for any "proprietor to make volteadas and "claim poundage on strange animals."

For the last four days they have been catching and impounding at Talar de Pacheco all the strange animals that they come upon in the Bañados, and demanding for their ransom $2 m/c. per head, besides expenses at the rate of $60 per day for each peon, so that we have to pay from $10 to $15 per head on the score of pounding fees.

Meantime the Government takes no steps on our behalf, although it is notorious we have neither men nor horses to send after our stray cattle, and I beg to avail myself of your columns to protest against the cruelty with which we are treated in this season of affliction, and to ask, is there no remedy?

Argentino.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

December 5th.

The elimination of the Henri V. men at any price from the Cabinet is a good sign that MacMahon, or somebody at his elbow, understands his epoch. A trio of Ministers who took office to maintain existing institutions, and worked their best to upset them, are in their place in private life. The sacrifice may equal the removal of the Duc de Broglie himself, whom not a few would like to see going the way of all flesh, in a parliamentary sense. As it is well not to look a gift horse in the mouth, and equally excellent to build a golden bridge for a retreating enemy, so opinion is inclined to be less severe in its attitude, and a degree more hopeful that the 'Septennial' may live—till it expires. The great duty of the nation is, to impress on MacMahon the propriety of not volunteering himself to bear the badgering intended for his Ministers, to have less of the milk of human kindness, and to live as retired as the Grand Lama.

There is a prospect, too, that the Liberals in the Assembly will have after all the deciding vote and influence in making and passing the constitutional laws, which if they do not make the Republic republicans desire, will be the next best thing to it, and having the most chances of longevity. Good laws are the only security demanded or believed in; and the extinction of the knock down policy of the Cabinet would be hailed as a harbinger of peace, and even a proof of patriotism. Both would act as a 'sursum corda.' Having kept us all in hot water for so long by their intrigues and dishonesty, the spectacle of the royalists breaking up is a kind of compensation. Like so many sincere family reconciliations, all has terminated in more envenomed wrath. Hot love is soon cooled. The Count de Chambord is not gushing respecting his cousins, and it is said that they displayed so little anxiety to discover him in his princely hiding place, near Versailles, since which event, the pure republicans believe that Henry V. deserves to be closely watched to prevent Strasbourg raids and Boulogne descents. Royalty cuts curious figures now a days; but all in the defence of order, religion, family, property, and other nice things.

Next sending the military and naval officers out of the Assembly, is the resolve to make the Ambassadors follow them. Nothing is more whimsical than the hegira that take place by French Ambassadors from the various Courts of Europe when the Government is about making a life and death whip for votes.

Paris is slightly agitated—in the private life sense of the word—at the schism that threatens to cut the French Protestants, that is to say, Presbyterians, not into halves, but a division of one-third and two-thirds, the proportion between the expected seceders and the orthodox. It is on the subject, principally of drawing up a broad platform embracing the Westminster Confession of Faith and a little of other sects' creeds that there is dissent. The minority repudiate Test Acts, and go in for free wills and open consciences. The war is becoming lively.

Unfortunately so many princes come to grief in Paris that one more or less makes no great impression. We do not expect them to differ much from humanity in general; hence, the Armenian Prince now locked up on charges of swindling is accepted by many 'citoyens' as a matter of course. The death of the young Prince Ghika in the duel at Fontainebleau, aged but 24, is a sad piece of folly. He expected to fall, and made his arrangements with a view to that event. The ball after traversing his intestines lodged in his kidneys, and now is deposited with the magistrate. The cause of the insult which led to the duel, was the belief that the deceased intended to marry the wife of his antagonist, the Prince Sautzo, as soon as she obtained her divorce. The combatants are in addition, scions of rival houses in Moldavia, and the quarrel is a family revenge.

Dumas 'fils' has had a success as a dramatist in his new play Monsieur Alphonse; as a Moralist he is a few degress less impure; adultery of course is the theme. The leopard cannot change his spots.

The city of Algiers has of late years been much frequented as a winter health station, as well as a residence generally for invalids throughout the year. The climate is uniform, the temperature for the year representing a mean of 66° Fahrt.; the coldest month, January, 49°, and the warmest, August, 88°. It never rains, but pours down in torrents, and the dry, hot wind necessitates a staying within doors till the sirocco be past. The sunlight is so vivid that blue spectacles are essential, and the head should be protected by a turban or a fold of silk worn round the hat. As to the medicinal effects of the climate as bearing on consumptive patients, it calms the cough, lessens expectoration and is good in the first stage of tuberculosis, and in the second if extreme care be taken; but in the third stage it is injurious, where the patient is affected with spitting of blood. November is the proper month to arrive, and April to leave.

The house where Marat lived, Nos. 18-20 rue de l'Ecole-de-Médecine, is likely to be repaired away altogether. He lived on the first story, and in a small back room was his office and bath, wherein he was assassinated in July 1793 by Charlotte Corday; the ground floor is occupied by a grocer and a dairy, and in a neighboring court yard, Danton lived. Almost in front of the house was the famous 'Club des Cordeliers', of which Marat was one of the principal orators, and where originated the petition for proclaiming the downfall of Louis XVI. It was in the garden of the same club house the remains of Marat were interred, till they were subsequently transferred to the Pantheon, from whence they were ignominously expelled a few years later, and thrown into the common sewer. A curious circumstance to note, that the apartments occupied by Marat have ever been, and at present are rented by physicians, Marat himself belonging to that profession; and further, in all stormy periods of political French history, the most busy bees have ever been shoemakers and doctors.

REPUBLIC OF URUGUAY.

NOTES BY A PORONGOS SETTLER.

Misfortunes have pressed heavily upon the Banda Oriental for the last seven years; of these misfortunes civil war has been the worst, and has greatly increased the heaviness of the others, destroying confidence, putting a stop to immigration, lowering the value of land and live stock, and in other ways greatly hampering Estancieros and tradesmen in their efforts to bear up under the pressure of bad markets and dear money. One year more of war would have landed the country in universal and irretrievable bankruptcy; two years of Peace have done much, but they are not sufficient to re-establish the country on a prosperous basis; there is lost ground to be made up; when the staple interests of a country have been driven to the verge of ruin, the effects are feet for long after.

The Producers of a country are the men upon whom the prosperity of that country rests. The wealth of the Banda Oriental lies in her production of hides, tallow and wool, these are her chief exports, they are all she has to give in exchange for the dry goods hardware, wines &c. which she cannot produce herself and must thus import, they are the only source wherefrom she may extract the payment of the interest and principal of the foreign loans she has raised or may yet wish to raise.

Foreigners landing at Montevideo are bid look around them and see the prosperity of the country. They see a beautiful city, rapidly spreading itself round the bay; they see fine houses, churches, railways, telegraphs, macadamized roads, and quintas nestling amidst exotic trees and flowering shrubs. All this is fair to look upon, and to some extent is an evidence of prosperity; but it may be an evidence of a prosperity that is past. Never was Imperial Rome so great and prosperous as in the days of Marcus Antonius, when the axe was already laid to the root of the tree; never was Paris, the queen of cities, more beautiful or more luxurious than on the day when Benedetti walked with King William in the gardens at Ems. Montevideo is a greater city now than she ever was before; she is also a more luxurious city: who shall say that she is not prosperous? Yet if you ask the foreign merchant, or the barraquero, or the shopkeeper, they will tell you that trade never was so dull: the shopkeeper shows you a long list of debts which he cannot collect; the barraquero looks gloomily at his half-empty galpones—"You see, and this is the height of the season," and probably asks you to take a cocktail by way of putting an end to your questions. The carriages rattle along the streets, the cafés are crowded, Solis opens wide its portals, and operas are performed as they never have been performed before in Montevideo; laughter and merriment are heard on every side. Surely Montevideo is prospering greatly!

Can a city stand by itself? a city of foreigners, where not one man in a dozen you meet is a native, or has any real care for the prosperity of the land in which he dwells? Montevideo is a trading centre: trading cities have in former times risen, and do now rise, to great wealth and power; but a trading city cannot stand by itself.

The prosperity of Montevideo is evident: her prosperity depends upon the prosperity of the Republic of which she is the capital and the trading centre. Is her prosperity evidence of the present prosperity of the Republic? Let us see. The wealth of the Republic of Uruguay consists in horned cattle and in sheep; her agriculture does not produce enough for her own requirements; she has no mines, no manufactures. The transit trade of Montevideo is a bagatelle. Horned cattle and sheep have increased and multiplied greatly in the Republic of Uruguay since the end of the long war in the year 1852; hence the prosperity of Montevideo, which is the outlet for the produce of these flocks and herds, and the inlet for foreign wealth which comes in exchange. In the year 1865 the horned cattle in the Republic of Uruguay were estimated at 8,000,000 head; since then the natural increase has been favored by the seasons; there has been no great "seca;" had the country remained at peace it is probable that the number now would have been much greater, but since 1866 the country has been constantly in turmoil up to the last year. Cattle are looked upon by vagabond soldiery as their natural prey, and cattle-farmers have sold off their breeding stock in a most reckless manner to save themselves from total ruin. For years it was the custom in this department (which, being a central one, is one of those which have suffered most heavily in the wars) to sell off all cows as they get fat enough for slaughter. I have known several instances in which the entire lot of calves for the year have been killed at birth, so that their mothers might fatten and become saleable. The consequence is, that in this department the cattle, instead of having increased, have wofully diminished in number since the year 1865. Probably in the other departments things have not been so bad; but there can be no question that during the last nine years cattle have not increased at all, even if they have maintained their number, which is doubtful. The comparative export of hides during these years will throw some light upon the question, but such data are not infallible.

Early in 1869 there were 20,000,000 sheep in the Banda Oriental; the epidemia of that year swept away 40 per cent. of them, leaving the stock at 12,000,000. Whether the sheep that escaped death in that year were ruined in constitution, or whether the pasturage of the country has been deteriorated by a succession of rainy seasons, I know not, but since the year 1868 the lambing has never been such as it was in previous years. In 1870 and 1871 there was some small increase, more than sufficient to replace the ordinary consumption of the country; but during those years war raged, and sheep were slaughtered by thousands for the sake of their skins. In 1872 the increase was very small, and barely made up for the consumption; this year has been worse still, and ended with a three days storm, just as shearing finished, which covered the "cuchillas" all over the country with dead sheep. I don't know whether this department has suffered worse than the others; if it have not, the loss of sheep during that three days storm cannot have been less than three millions. Thus the total stock of sheep to-day is less than half what it was in the beginning of the year 1869. Diminished stocks have not been the only evil against which sheep-farmers have had to contend: in 1867 wool prices fell 30 per cent., and in the following year lower still; wool did not cover the expense of growing; true the sheep increased, but they were unsaleable: the year 1869 swept all that increase away, and diminished the wool crop by fully 30 per cent.; in 1871 prices rose again, even beyond their former level, have not fallen much since, but every year the wool crop becomes smaller.

Now the wealth of the Republic of the Uruguay is the produce of her flocks and herds, that produce is either stationary in value or has greatly decreased during the last 9 years, is then the Republic prosperous? Or is the prosperity of her chief city the effect of past prosperity? Or, again is it a discounting of the prosperity of the future? This is a serious question. If it be a discounting of the prosperity of the future, then the aggrandizement of Montevideo is the building of a house on a foundation of sand.

Dismantled Estancias, unoccupied puestos may be seen all over the country, the money which should restock these Estancias, and again place shepherds in these ruined puestos, is expended in the capital, producing there a fictitious prosperity, a prosperity which must end in utter ruin if the vital interests of the country be much longer neglected.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather was so bad yesterday afternoon that the R.M.S. Boyne had to postpone her departure till 9 A.M. to-day. At Montevideo the sea ran mountains high, and although the Pacific steamer Potosi entered, no communication could be held with her. The storm on Tuesday night played Old Harry with a great many persons and things. The river was dashing over the Northern Railway yesterday in such fashion as to stop the trains, and many family men living on the line eagerly seized the opportunity to dine and sleep in town.

Hats off, gentlemen! The first telegram from Pará to the River Plate reached the STANDARD yesterday morning. We're not going to say a word about an editorial victory; dont be afraid; but the importance of getting news from Pará in 6 days is great. In a few weeks we will be in through telegraphic communication with the Amazon, and who knows but next year we may be able to salute our colleagues on the Orinoco, if we have any in that remote quarter. Electricity and Emigration have marked the Plate for their own, and it would be hard to find two better friends. The receipt of this Pará telegram imposes on us the pleasing duty of saluting and congratulating Mr. John Oldham, who will be Manager in Chief at Montevideo of the united cables to Europe. The right man in the right place.

Tuesday night brought up a rattling gale from the S.E. succeeded yesterday by a deliciously cool Pampero. The 'blow' on Monday night was strong enough, but mere child's breath compared to the Sou-Easter. The suburban quintas presented a lamentable spectacle yesterday morning: 2,753,621 peaches and nectarines lay on the soil, torn from their parent stems, and even sturdy trees were roughly handled. The rain was tremendous about 9 o'clock p.m. on Tuesday, and washed the city clean. The havoc amongst the fruit induces us to remind parents and proprietors to keep a sharp eye on their families and servants lest too many full meals of the luscious wreck give the cholera a new lease of life and spread it far and wide.

A telegraph operator last month summoned a doctor thus:—Come at once to see procession of Carlo Spencer's menagerie. The message, when 'repeated,' read—Come at once with prescription—case of cerebro-spinal meningitis."

Look out hotel and boarding-house keepers! For some time past a gent who was once a gentleman has been making the round of several respectable lodging houses in town, stopping a week or so, and invariably leaving his host or hostess in the lurch. Borrowing money on various pretences is also one of his accomplishments, and his assumed station in life varies from that of a ship-captain to a railway employee, or any other respectable position that may suit his book. Several parties have got lamentably 'stuck' by this enterprising person, who is tall and fair, sandy and seedy, and whose name we are in possession of in case any one enquires for him.

The Zarzuela Company now performing at the Flores Theatre have dedicated their efforts this evening to the British residents of Flores, and, we doubt not, our countrymen in that quarter will duly respond to the compliment. The Company is the same that created such a favourable impression last year at the Victoria Theatre, and it deserves every support. The play selected for this evening is 'Campanone,' in three acts, a most interesting piece. Parties going from town can have free tickets on the tramway, in the following ratio:—Every holder of a 'tertulin' or 'luneta' seat gets a free tram ticket, and of a 'palco' four tickets.

We call the attention of merchants and business men generally to the new Letter Weighing Machines just imported by Messrs. Burgos & Co., whose gorgeous emporium at the corner of Calles Florida and Cangallo is one of the city's ornaments. These scales are arranged to meet the new Postal Law of the Republic, and will be indispensable in every office.

It is reported that a home-sick San Franciscan, who is visiting his friends in this city, finds occasional relief by having sand squirted in his face and down his back with a bellows, somewhat as the wind does it in San Francisco.

Three fatal cases of cholera have occurred at San Fernando.

The fashionable rush just now to No. 90 Calle Florida reminds us of how people used to trample each other to death in years gone by to get a look at the STANDARD Museum when we first started it. Messrs. Durand & Co. have started, in the premises referred to, a most interesting and novel exhibition of products, pictures, curiosities and manufactures, all exclusively Argentine. The patriotic "hijo del pais" and the enterprising foreigner are equally bound to give this new concern a helping hand. In any case a visit to it cannot fail to prove agreeable, and will, most likely, also prove profitable to buyer and seller.

Our telegram of yesterday with news from Rio de Janeyro to the 9th inst. said nothing about the Potosi which vessel, however, entered M. Video yesterday one day behind time. These Pacific steamers were running with exquisite regularity up to six weeks ago, but just now they seldom come up to time. Yet we might go a vast deal farther and fare considerably worse than with this splendid line of packets.

'On dit' that cross actions at law have been commenced by the principles in the editorial scuffle in Calle Florida the other day. Why can not editors, like nations, submit their disputes to Arbitration? Yet we cannot blame such humble people as editors for wishing to fight duels when we see Chief Justice Cockburn burning to cock his pistol and let daylight through his learned brother Dr. Kenealy. There is great anxiety for the Potosi's papers to learn whether the Scottish Chief or the Irish Doctor has been shot dead. A subscriber who knows Kenealy assures us he can knock the ashes off a friend's cigar at 20 paces, without injuring the smoker.

The simplest and cheapest remedy for Cholera we have yet seen is by an Atalanta doctor, who advises persons who wish to avoid the malady "to stand on their heads for a considerable time each day, for the purpose of causing abdominal depression." It will be an affecting spectacle for a man to come home in the evening and see his wife and children and his aunt all standing on their heads in a row in the entry waiting for abdominal depression.

Intending purchasers of lands to be sold at Ajo on the 19th inst will take note that diligences via Chascomus and Dolores leave from Piedras 30 on Tuesdays and Saturdays, Piedras 77 on Thursdays, and Tacuari 11 on Fridays.

The European papers announce that a General Baron Von Engel has been locked up for forging the Duke de Saxe-Meinengen's name to the tune of 300,000 thalers; that the duel between Groeben and Manteuffel has been officially denied, and that the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia has refused to accept the Colonelcy of the Prussian Queen Elizabeth Regiment, offered to him by King William. The Grand Duke is a Muscovite 'pur sang,' and does not like Germany.

The ports of Entre Rios are again open, as the National Government does not recoguize the recent decree of the local Government shutting them in order to keep cholera out.

The Spanish papers mention two infant prodigies that have turned up at the University of Valencia. One is a boy aged 13 who, after only two years study, obtained the degree of Bachelor of Arts with great academical honors. The other is a girl of 10 who entered and obtained the same degree. It does not require much, apparently, to make a Bachelor at Valencia. For the benefit of our unmarried lady readers we'll write and enquire what it takes to make a Benedict there.

The district of Lujan appears to be suffering terribly from drought. We received several additional complaints yesterday as to the action of the Government in delaying to declare the 'partido' as suffering from 'seca,' so as to save cattle owners from the consequences of their cattle trespassing on neighbouring estancias.

Who'll stand up to give a lady his seat? La Portenita announces her intention of squeezing into the 'Editorial Bus' on Sunday next, and some one must give her a place for politeness sake.

San Nicolas has determined to be in the fashion and out of the world, and has clapped on quarantine for vessels from Buenos Ayres. The pretension of every little provincial municipality to put on quarantine at its pleasure is extremely inconvenient. We were once put in quarantine at San Antonio de Areco during the Plague, and had to show our tongue to a 'medico' in 'chiripa' and 'poncho' (he looked deucedly like a cow doctor,) and let him feel our pulse. We did n't laugh, and escaped with five minutes detention; but a poor old lady and her daughter, who were half crying with apprehension, and erroneously supposed by the cow doctor to be grinning at him, were locked up for the night as 'casos sospechosos.'

The problem of the day in official circles is how to get a 'quorum' of the Provincial Deputies together. The last citation only produced 16 honorable members, all the others having urgent private affairs in the camp, or anywhere and everywhere but where they are wanted. The Ways and Means for the year have not been voted, yet the Deputies won't meet. Query—of what mundane use are Provincial Governments? Even Echo is ashamed to answer.

We heard it rumoured yesterday that the dramatic performance which proved so successful on board the Boyne during her outward trip is to be repeated in this city by the talented amateurs, for some charitable purpose. Muy bien!'

Excellent news. The Cholera is going, going, and will soon be as gone as anything ever knocked down. On Tuesday the deaths from the disease were 12. Yesterday only 10 were reported up to 4 o'clock p m. Three of the five Municipal hospitals and Lazarettos are empty, and only a few cholera patients left in the other two.

Advices from the far South report a terrific hurricane at Las Flores, trees torn up, houses blown down, and general smash. Mr. John Campot's house was blown to ruins, and two of his sons killed by the falling masonry, while the bereaved father was seriously mauled and had a rather narrow escape with his life.

A lady who on the death of her first husband, married his brother, has a portrait of the former hanging in her dining room. One day, a visitor, remarking the painting, asked, "is that a member of your family?" "Oh, that's my poor brother-in-law," was the ingenious reply.

We had several enquiries yesterday from robust subscribers as to that terrestrial paradise, the Apipè Islands, which we introduced to our readers' notice in our last issue. We know nothing more at present than what we have already published, but hear the islands highly lauded by many. They certainly look promising on paper.

"A New York saloon-keeper keeps his father about the place as an encourager to his patrons. The old chap is ninety years old, and says he hasn't gone to bed sober for more than sixty years."

A singular and horrible death befel a man lately near the river Honda in Santiago del Estero. He was sleeping a siesta with a companion near the river when he suddenly felt himself choking. He pulled his friend to awake him. The latter jumped up and found a huge snake half way down the poor fellows' throat; he tugged at the reptile's tail and finally pulled it in two, the head and fore part remaining in the throat and suffocating the victim. The unfortunate man had drunk freely of milk before sleeping, and the smell of it from his breath must have attracted the snake.

ON 'CHANGE.

January 14th, 1874.

Ounces	400
Sovs	12½
Pats	25
Nat. Bonds	80
Cedulas	86

The stock marke looked better to-day, and Cedulas recovered fully ½ before even the news from Europe was known. The health of the town to-day showed better, and the telegram from Havre announcing the reduction of the Bank of England rate to 4 p c. also favorably affected the market.

It was announced on 'Change that the Governor had named Dr. Federico Pinedo as Director of the Mortgage Bank, and Mr. Edward Madero Director of the Provincial Bank. Both nominations are well received in commercial circles.

The National Bank finally settled the question yesterday about brokers' signatures, expunging the order against them, and putting them on the same level as merchants. Mr. Riestra is very much praised for this reform, and he has increased his popularity by the step. The present interest rate of the National Bank, 12 per cent., is much complained of, and it is suggested that as the Bank is not a private concern, but a national institution, the rate ought to be reduced, say to 9 per cent.

The Provincial Bank, it was rumored to day on 'Change, is about to help the market still further by reducing the amortization on bills falling due from 10 to 5 per cent.

There was great talk about the storm. The river, they say, is as high as ever it was, and even tops the Water-works. Those residing in San Isidro and San Fernando have to remain in town all night, as there are no trains beyond the Retiro; the tramway rescues the Belgrano people from a similar plight. Numerous small boats were washed up Calle Paraguay, and the water washed the mole part of Paseo Julio and reached the Boca Railway viaduct. A notice to merchants about the non-running of the trains was posted on the Bolsa. Those living on the river-side felt much dejected.

The sales to day were as follows—

The Boyne, owing to the heavy sea on, could not get away; she has £55,000 stg. in gold, and about £60,000 stg. in National Bonds on freight, besides a very long list of passengers.

The Tarraguy from Paraguay was looked for to-day. She will probably bring stiff news from Asuncion as it is thought Cabal ero has taken the town.

Messrs Green le Rossignol and Co, in consequence of the weather, have been obliged to change the postings of their Lamport and Holt fleet, the postings are as follows—

Memnon for Havre sails 15th Jan.
Olbers do Antwerp do 16th.
Memling do do. 20th.

Discount brokers report money for first class signatures easy and abundant, for such paper the Prov. Bank rate and brokerage is the rate, for other paper 12 per cent.

Our telegram this morning with news from Rio to 9th and Para to the 8th, was indeed a welcome announcement. The value of this message is not to be measured by the news it contains, but rather as a speaking evidence of the splendid progress of South America. Gradually the links are being joined. Next month we may look for the Platino cable connecting us with Rio, and then we are through to the Amazon. It is unnecessary to single out individuals for any special congratulation—we congratulate everyone on the event. Progress holds the Continent, and whether as shareholders or message senders, we all contribute to support a cause which happily stands first in this quarter of South America. Again, our American friends learn that the American mail with dates from New York to 23rd December reached Para on the 8th, and may be looked for in Rio on 19th. Whatever may be the influences which electricity is destined to work on trade in South America, this year we shall probably glean. Many opine that with cable messages from London to Buenos Ayres the whole phase of our commerce will change, which we much doubt; but what none can question is that between Electricity and Emigration the River Plate is destined to advance with more gigantic strides than heretofore. How far our little message from Para throws its beams through the commercial world can be judged by the fact that it brings together two of the world's estuaries, the Plate and the Amazon. It is not within the range of imagination to say what the trade of these immense countries may reach in one hundred, nay in 20 years. The surplus population of Southern Europe has at last discovered a free, happy and independent home in the valley of the Plate, many years will not elapse before the pouring thousands on our shores will spread over hill and dale, and like unto the U. S. call into play the now desert wilds of the finest country the sun ever shone on. The movement has already begun, for even in the last issue of this journal we called notice to the applications to the Government for the Islands of Apipe, not for arsenals or garrisons, but peaceful farms &c. The beautiful Misiones of Corrientes unsurpassed for their genial clime and fertile soil, are to-day a howling wilderness, but will any man say what they will be in 10 years hence? Passion and politics may retard us, but they are as a pitchfork to stem a current; that current is with us, and the first straw that come to indicate that current is this little message from Para. Brazilians have indeed cause to be proud of their splendid Government and splendid country, they stretch out the hand of friendship and fellowship to us in everything, they help us immensely, although few of us perhaps see it; we meet them on all the highways of trade commerce and national progress, they bring us 6 days closer to Europe by their own ceaseless enterprize, and they share with us triumphs which are exclusively their own, happy for the Plate that we have so excellent a neighbour; different indeed would it be for the Argentine nation had we alongside of us a Venezuela or some other blustering little Republic. In many things the Plate is singularly lucky, and the Para message this morning coming at the dawn of 1874 points upwards, and is a good harbinger.

Owing to the great storm last night, it was thought this afternoon, the river being so high, that the Boyne would not get away before to-morrow.

At the Banco Hipotecario to-day there was a push. Mortgagors must take notice that to-morrow will be the last day to pay the quarter's interest and amortization; after that there will be a fine.

The Ibis was detained at Montevideo owing to bad weather. Messrs. Scharffenorth y Sattler, the agents, report that she leaves to night, and will sail for West Coast on the 17th.

The Bonnemason steamer 'La Franco' has entered. She is posted to sail on the 19th.

Several small sales of property in the suburbs are reported, and there seems to be a stir in that description of property. Flores and Moron are so crowded that already property holders have begun to build new houses to meet the great increase of tenants.

Sr. Comendador Marquez, representative of the Platino-Brazileiro Telegraph Co., reports that this week the land line to Fray Bentos and Mercedes will be opened to the public. This looks well.

The Olbers and Ville de Santos are both posted to sail to-morrow, and the Espresso and Memnon on Saturday. The Memling is posted for the 20th.

The Southampton steamer of 24th (Tiber) will, it is reported, bring £200,000 in gold for the Provincial Government, to be followed by £300,000 in the Douro.

Having received several very important improvements viz.:—

Morrison's wonderful little Engine, for cleaning and excavating decayed teeth, preparatory to filling, which does the work with such rapidity and beautiful exactness, that in a very few seconds an otherwise sensitive tooth is prepared for the Gold in a manner unatt inable by the disagreeable method of scraping and burning, so well known by those who have experienced the operation.

Also Green's Electric Engine, which took the grand Diploma of Honor at the Vienna Exhibition. The feat of harnessing lightning is fairly done in this neat, efficient, and truly wonderful little machine. By this we manipulate the gold into the most difficult of frail tooth, with the most exquisite exactness, and without danger of fracturing the most delicate enamel. Then, with the same engine, we finish and polish the filling in less than one quarter the time formerly required, and without pain. No patient who has had teeth filled in this manner once, will ever willingly consent to the use of excavators or burr again.

We have also received an immense quantity of the most beautifully carved Artificial Teeth, comprising thousands of different shades and forms, from which with our long practical experience we can match any style or feature, complexion, or expression, with such artistic niceness that detection is impossible.

The Plate we use for the atmospheric pressure is the Whalebone Rubber, the lightest and strongest known.

We have been using Nitrous Oxide Gas, for the painless Extraction of Teeth for nearly four teen years, and have administered over 20,000 Times,

2,140 times in this City alone, since August 1872,

And recommend it as the safest anesthetic known. It is nothing new, as it has been tested by thousands of Dentists, and hundreds of thousands of people.

Persons from the Camp and neighboring Towns, can have their Sets of Teeth made in time to return same day, by making an appointment before hand,

RODOLFO NEWBERY,
Brothers.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND CO.
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maua & Co. of this city, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Maua & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maua & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Note—For the money deposited exceeding [illegible] dollars currency, a [illegible] thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wish can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one artilde, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsagarilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, druge, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uniformity, of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of

As a means of building up the consiitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilla must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly hasted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to mal fnuctional operations. —o— 46

Murray's Chlorodyne
Prepared according to the original recipe

TESTIMONIAL

"British Consulate, Rosario, May 2nd 1867.

"Dear Sir—

"In reply to your letter of April 24; asking my opinion of the value of the Chlorodyne prepared by you, I feel it my duty to state that I have used it to some extent in the late Cholera epidemic here, and have found it to be equal in efficacy to Collis Browne's, Freeman's, Towle's, or any other Chlorodyne. I have likewise mentioned this in my report on the Cholera at Rosario, which I purpose forwarding next Saturday through our Minister, Mr. Mathew, to Dr. Rawson.

"Yours faithfully,

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL prevents the hair falling off or turning grey, strengthens weak hair, causes it to grow on bald places, and makes it beautifully soft pliable, and glossy. Price 3s. 6d., 7s., 10s 6ds equal to four small, and 21s. per bottle.

IMPORTANT CAUTION—Ask for Rowland's Macassar Oil, and avoid all other cheap articles under the same or similar names as spurious imitations. Each bottle has a glass stopper instead of the cork as formerly. All with the cork are spurious imitations.

ROWLAND'S KALYDOR removes cutaneous disfigurements, freckles, and tan, and imparts a healthy and blooming appearance to the skin. During the heat and dust of summer especially, and in cases of sunburns and stings of insects, it is of the utmost use. Price 4s. 6d. and 8s 6d. per bottle. Ask for "Rowland's Kalydor."

ROWLAND'S ODONTO, or Pearl Dentrifice, preserves and imparts a pearl-like whiteness to the teeth, eradicates tartar and spots of incipient decay, strengthens the gums, and gives a pleasing fragrance to the breath. Price 2s 9d. per box. Ask for "Rowlan 's Odonto."

ROWLAND'S ESSENCE of TYRE, never fails to produce immediately a perfect change in red or grey hair, whiskers, eyebrows, &c., to a beautiful glossy and permanent brown or black, which colour remains so durable, that neither washing nor perspiration can remove it. Price 4s., 7s, 6d., and 10s. 6d, per bottle.

All these articles have been used and justly, appreciated by all the Sovereigns and Courts of Europe, the Pope of Rome, and the aristocracy of the world, during the last 70 years, being of inestimable value to those who have once used them. They are sold by all chemists, perfumers, and bazaars throughout India, Australia, the Colonies, and South America.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med. Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the Inventor of CHLORODYNE that the story of the Defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne, that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—The Times, July 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

REMEDIA, USES AND ACTION.

THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Cramp, Hysteria, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport hat he had received information to the effect that he only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentry. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after 18 month's severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [Dec. 1865] that nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would no thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place."

Extract from the General Board of Health London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strong are we convinced of the immense value of his remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE, from which frequent fatal results have followed.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journa Aug. 1, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bott
